2. Broadcast messages

Craig Bucknall, Foxwood City: «To: Jed Stone - All I can say is, you're not wrong! We are the World's unluckiest team. As for the bad luck stretching like elastic and eventually snapping, well, I can but hope!»

Jed Stone, Frilby United: «According to Jack Lidgute, the Football Historian, in the early 1800's Baron Von DrukerBerk, a well-known German engineer, was hired to build a canal in Ireland. He was amazed by the capabilities of the team of Irish navvies employed for the work, but felt they fell short of their German counterparts in terms of efficiency and precision. The Irish navvies could dig the canal faster than any German navvies but they could not make the sides and floor of the canal smooth enough; and neither could they make the sides lean at exactly the required angle. Only German navvies could do this. The answer was to employ a team of German navvies to work along side their Irish counterparts. From the start there was rivalry between the two factions. While at work the two teams maximised the efficiency of the canal build. Unfortunately, when not at work they were constantly at each other's throats, and many man-hours were lost due to injuries following after work fights. Something was needed to channel the inter team rivalry into safer waters. That something was football! Each of the factions (and their wives) formed teams that regularly played in various cups and competitions through out the working season. The idea worked so well that Von DrukerBerk and his team of navvies were hired to build several other canals. Von DrukerBerk became rich and famous and his navvies very proficient at football.»

13. Rosedale Knockout semi final draw

FC Asskickers vs. Botanica
Currents of Space vs. Serial Killers

Teams not currently part of the league system are now conference league teams with 60 VP. All cup games are played on neutral field, thus neither team will have a home advantage.

14. Luck statistics

Premiership: Serial Killers are now luckiest, while Currents of Space remain unluckiest, though Ubermenschen have almost caught up with them.
Championship: Night Owls are luckiest, while Stars keep up being unlucky.
Division 1: ENPS are still luckiest, while The Scientists remain unluckiest.
Division 2: Cosmopolitan remain luckiest, while Sjokoladen BK are still unluckiest.
Division 3: What I said last round is still just as true: Frillby United are still most fortunate, while Foxwood City still have been most unlucky. The division is much more even than it looks, as all teams except Frillby on the lower half have been unlucky so far. In fact, if Foxwood had 16 points now, they still would've been considered unlucky!
