2. Broadcast messages

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«From Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER - Skelsthorpe

Is Scrazz a scam? Following the revelation that it was members of RAB (Real Ale Boys) drinking Gargle Blasters and not Slarty Fans speculation has grown about the existence of Scrazz. In the Football Fan Zine 'GOAL!!!' Jez Whickmore speculates that 'Scrazz' is a figment of someone's imagination. It was the incident at Riddifield Hospital that brought Scrazz into the light of day and it was then linked to Frillby United and the club's cup tie against the Professors of Jazz by the manager of Slartybartfast. Jez was at that match and he says Frillby lost the match due to superior play by the Professors and not because of a mysterious product taken by the players. The Professors just sliced Frillby apart with no mercy. Superior play won the day, it was not lost because of Scrazz. This is backed up by the club's insistence that Tearillia is the only pre-match drink used by the club. So does Scrazz actually exist or is it just a rumour started by the RAB boys to cover a drinking incident or an attempt to discredit Frillby United? Speculation is rife.»

3. Apprentices discovered
