2. Broadcast messages

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«From Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER - Skelsthorpe

Sir James Estdale, Chairman of Frillby United was quite upbeat following Frillby's defeat by Slatybartfast in week 9. Frillby were level at the break but lost ground in the second half and ended the match two goals down. Sir James said, 'The match was well played by both sides and the Slarty side took full advantage of their home advantage to win. They will be most welcome at Twixby Stadium later in the season where we shall see if they can repeat their strong performance.'

Meanwhile police are studying CCTV footage from the Frillby dressing room which shows, just before half time, a figure with three arms and two heads changing the teams half time drink of Tearillia for another liquid that later proved to be Pan Galactic Gargle Blasters. A spokesman for the club said, 'The change was obvious. The steam rising from the liquid was green. Tearillia has blue steam. None of the lads had any had any of it but neither did they have any Tearillia which probably explains what happened in the second half.'

The police say they are still struggling to identify the figure as both his heads were covered with buckets. They are appealing to any of the public with information to come forward.»
