1. Introduction

Hi all and welcome to the new round of Rosedale Open!

Since the issue is late, I have pushed the schedule back. I hope to return to getting the issues out on time now.

The early deadline for issue 10 is Friday September 15, at 21:30 CET.
The deadline for issue 10 is Friday September 22, at 21:30 CET.
Publication date for issue 10 is Wednesday October 4. It might be out sooner.

If issue 10 is out on time, the deadlines for issue 11 will be October 13 and 20. If you have heard nothing by the publication date, feel free to get in touch to check up on it.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club.

Next issue, you send orders for:
* match days 17 and 18 in the league (see section 12)
* the Rosedale Knockout semi finals (see section 13)

This round, the home advantage remains 8 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams.

2. Broadcast messages

Jed Stone, Frillby United:
«From the Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER - Skelsthorpe

With the end of the season drawing closer four more of Trupps Golden Cards have made an appearance. 'Leakey', Sweeper for Elmstead Casuals has been found in packets of 'Bark-A-Lot' the famous dog food. The New Generation forward 'Ranger' has appeared in packets of 'Boreburtons Crumpets (deliciously fluffy) and 'Moulokin' - Mid fielder for Currents of Space made his appearance in six packs of Minze baked beans. Each appearance has resulted in the usual shopping rush by collectors and the usual angry reaction from innocent shoppers caught up in the melee. Mrs Ramsbottom from Skelsthorpe was reprimanded by police after she stopped a would be collector grabbing the last pack of 'Bark-A-Lot' in 'Pets Are Us' by impaling him up the left nostril with the tip of her umbrella. No charges were brought as after Sid Soul (the store's manager), had surgically removed the umbrella with a spoon, Mrs Ramsbottom opened the bag of dog biscuits and gave the young collector the card.

The fourth card turned out to be 'Man-o-War' goal keeper for Cosmopolitan and it caused great consternation amongst Slarty fans when it was located in packets of 'Tearillia' the infamous tea drink favoured by Frillby fans. Buying a pack of 'Tearillia' is an unacceptable crime to a Slarty fan and would result in them being banned from 'The Bablefish' (the groups pub base) for life. Cards had to be obtained through a third party and decontaminated by immersion in a warm glass containing a Pan Galactic Gargle Blaster before being dried over a Golgafrincham marsh fire.»

Deepak Mohoni, Slartibartfast FC: «Slartibartfast FC is pleased to announce the appointment of Marvin the Paranoid Android as their new coach. We believe that he will be able to instil the much-needed motivation and camaraderie that been notably missing within the team, possibly because of the after-effects of the their health elixir - the Pan Galactic Gargle Blaster.»

3. Apprentices discovered
