1. Introduction

Here are the latest results! Since the issue is one day early, we'll stick with the previously announced schedule.

The early deadline for issue 5 is Friday November 26, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET.

The deadline for issue 5 is Friday December 3, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET. Publication date for issue 5 is Wednesday December 22. It might be out sooner.

Because of Christmas and New Year, if issue 5 is out on time, the deadlines for issue 6 will be January 7 and 14. If you have heard nothing by the expected publication, feel free to get in touch to check up on it.

This round, the home advantage increases to 7 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club. Optionally, you can let me know your orders are «always final» - an option for those of you who never change your orders anyway.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams. If you haven't received them by the day after the publication, please get in touch.

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«Hillsborough Stadium

The ref blew his whistle and the second half of the clash between Sheffield Thursday and the Twin Peak Owls resumed. Sheffield Thursday had gone into the break two goals behind but had come out fighting. Having broken up an early attack by the T.P. Owls they were now streaming down the wing determined to score.

High up on the roof above the stadium a pigeon was hopping from one claw to the other in excitement. It was Observer Thongral's protrusion into our dimension. He was there to watch the action as an impartial observer but as usual, was getting carried away with the action. He hopped excitedly forward, completely forgetting where he was and hopped into space. A second of frantic whirring wings and he stabilised himself and glided down on the pitch landing unnoticed at the edge of the T.P.Owls six-yard box. The Sheffield player, Bornor was haring down the opposite wing ball at his feet looking for someone to pass the ball to. Realising that he had an open goal to his left and completely forgetting himself Thongral the pigeon hopped high into the air squawking, 'On Mi head son!' By chance, the ball looped high in the air towards the ascending bird. Just prior to contact the pigeon became aware that he was a pigeon and therefore slightly smaller and softer than the ball he intended to head. Also, the Owls' goalkeeper was fast approaching from his left while Hector from the Sheffield Thursday stable was approaching like an express train from his right. Realising the danger, he was in, he did the only thing he could and slipped safely back into his own dimension.

The Keeper was intending to grab the ball as it fell, the forward to head it into the net.

Neither realised that the pigeon was there until it rose flapping its wings in their faces just before it suddenly vanished! Surprised they crashed to the ground together the goalkeeper firmly clutching the forwards head in his gloved hands. Despite the Keeper's claim that he had been distracted by a pigeon that had been about to head the ball he was going to grab the referee awarded a penalty against him. It was easily slotted into the back of the net, but the Sheffield team still went on to lose the match. The pigeon caught up on the action the following day by reading a match report from a newspaper strewn with a few of yesterday's chips, which he ate. »
