1. Introduction

Here are the latest results! Since the issue is on time, we'll stick with the previously announced schedule.

The early deadline for issue 4 is Friday October 22, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET.

The deadline for issue 4 is Friday October 29, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET. Publication date for issue 4 is Wednesday November 17. It might be out sooner.

If issue 4 is out on time, the deadlines for issue 5 will be November 26 and December 3. If you have heard nothing by the expected publication, feel free to get in touch to check up on it.

This round, the home advantage remains 6 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club. Optionally, you can let me know your orders are «always final» - an option for those of you who never change your orders anyway.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams. If you haven't received them by the day after the publication, please get in touch.

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

« Trillian Lane - Training pitch for Slartibartfast.

The cat was a hunter through and through. Steely eyed, sharp of claw, sharp of fang. The small white mouse quickly moving along the white line was doomed. It never stood a chance. The cat pounced and froze! The grass that had been green when it leapt was now bright blue! The sky had gone a funny colour as well. It was green with red clouds!!The cat felt something wiggle under its paws. He looked down and observed a large grey little toe. It was, without doubt, a little toe as it was the smallest of the twelve toes spread out next to it! The white mouse had gone! The cat had not been blessed with a large imagination. White mice that turned into toes were a long way outside the scope of its standard experience and had totally stretched its imagination to the edge of breaking point. For clarity it glanced up, and up and up and up. There were three eyes set in a field of grey mould at the top of a tall, thin grey mountain. The right eye glared down at the cat. The other two eyes ignored her. They had found a couple of other more interesting things to look at some way away.

'Piss Off!!!'

The words exploded in the cat's head without entering through its ears. It jumped in the air with shock and the normal world of the Trillian field flew back into view. It was a foot up in the air when it realised a small white mouse was glaring up at it from the grass below. The toe had disappeared! Without touching the ground the cat executed a back-flip, landed on all fours, and flew away into the bushes and disappeared. The world's first vegetarian cat! Meanwhile the white mouse shook itself and strolled on along the white line. Some way away the falcon had seen the cat before it pounced. It had also spotted the mouse. It stopped hovering and flew off in the opposite direction. The mice in this area seemed to be a little too strange for comfort!! »
