1. Introduction

Here are the latest results! Since the issue is a few days early, we'll stick with the previously announced schedule.

The early deadline for issue 6 is Friday January 7, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET.

The deadline for issue 6 is Friday January 14, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET. Publication date for issue 6 is Wednesday February 2. It might be out sooner.

If issue 6 is out on time, the deadlines for issue 7 will be February 11 and 18. If you have heard nothing by the expected publication, feel free to get in touch to check up on it.

This round, the home advantage remains 6 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club. Optionally, you can let me know your orders are «always final» - an option for those of you who never change your orders anyway.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams. If you haven't received them by the day after the publication, please get in touch.

2. Broadcast messages

Jed Stone, Frillby United:
«Trillian Lane - Training ground of Slartibartfast

Old Bert Barchester had been the groundsman for Slartibartfast for as long as he could remember. He'd started in his early teens cutting and trimming the mobile hedges frequently slept under by the Slarty boys after consuming several Pan Galactic Gargle Blasters. That was so long ago that 'Cut-me-own-throat Dribbler' was just starting out selling pies from the back of a horse and cart. (He'd tried one of Dribblers pies once and was sure there was more horse in the pie than there was at the front of the cart.) He'd climbed the groundsman ladder to become Head Groundsman and seen many strange sights along the way but a mouse, a pigeon and an owl sitting on a goalpost together! That was beyond weird. To make it stranger, if he glanced at them from the corner of his eye, he could see three eyes on the crossbar staring back at him. He glanced across to young Joss who was working his way round the pitch with the line marker. 'What's wrong with the far goal posts?' he called out. Joss stopped and glanced at the far goal. 'Nowt that I can see', he replied before returning to walking the line.

Old Bert frowned and looked once more at the far goal. The mouse raised its paw and waved to him. Bert scratched his head, and the owl and mouse did the same. The pigeon tried to do so but fell off its perch and just managed a dignified emergency landing on the pitch instead. The goal posts middle eye winked at him!

Enough was enough. Bert turned and slowly walked over to the other pitch to find something else to do until the group went away. This was Slartibartfast the home of many strange things and having a Pan Galactic Gargle Blaster Shandy before work had probably not been a good idea.»
