The deadline for issue 3 is Friday March 1, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET.

Publication date for issue 3 is Wednesday March 20. It might be out sooner.

If issue 3 is out on time, the deadlines for issue 4 will be March 29 and April 5. If you have heard nothing by the expected publication, feel free to get in touch to check up on it.

Next issue, you send orders for:

* match days 3 and 4 in the league (see section 12)

This round, the home advantage is 6 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club. Optionally, you can let me know your orders are «always final» - an option for those of you who never change your orders anyway.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams. If you haven't received them by the day after the publication, please get in touch.

Niall Grimes, Castle United: «Castle United are ready for the new season»

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«Twixby Lane training ground.

It was a preseason training session at Twixby Lane home of Frillby United. The one eyed cat sitting on the wall studied the activity intently. It had had a panoramic view of the world but as its left eye had failed it was more oramic and had to keep turning its head slightly to view the whole pitch.

Just round the corner by the main entrance Cut-mi-own-Throat Dribbler sat in his Hot Dog van. A small screen showing a picture of the pitch was propped up on the dash board and the controller for the cat sat in his lap. Spy Cat was his latest acquisition from Slippery Sam's Emporium and the first step in his latest money making scheme. True it was third or probably fifth hand and looked like an scraggy alley cat that had recently escaped a collapsed building but it had been cheap and to Cut-Mi-Own-Throat that was acceptable.

A pigeon, sitting on top of the main stand, had also been watching the training session and the cat. The cat was constantly turning its head but hadn't licked itself at all and its fur definitely needed straightening. Hallic, for the pigeon was indeed the transcendental being, stretched his wings and glided down to settle by the cat. He sidled up to it and pecked its ear. The cat's head immediately jerked up and it fell backwards off the wall. Hallic stared down at it and then flew back to his perch on the roof of the main stand. Dribbler muttered a curse and dropping the controller onto the seat got out of the van and went to retrieve the cat.

On the roof of the main stand a mouse materialised beside the pigeon. 'Anything interesting going on?' it enquired.

'The goalkeeper's rubbish. The defence aren't much better. The attack are dreadful. They may have a future in this league,' replied Hallic. 'Oh, and I have just disabled Cut-Mi-Own-throat Dribblers 'Spy cat'. »
