By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams. If you haven't received them by the day after the publication, please get in touch.

Jed Stone, Frillby United:
«Twixby Stadium Skelsthorpe

The local derby, Frillby United v Slartibartfast had been classed as a minor war in the past. The rivalry between the two sets of fans had been intense and a headache for the local peace keeping force but in recent seasons the two had declared peace and the war had turned into a friendly rivalry. In the old days Slippery Sam had been the only referee that had the nerve to act as referee for this local Derby. Now adays it was a game that was a referee's dream to officiate at. Every goal was celebrated by both sides and the officials were always applauded off the pitch.

This match was no exception. Even when Frasco's miss-timed tackle gave Slartibartfast a free kick in the 73rd minute and Telephone Sanitizer headed in the final goal there was no trouble. The well judged header received a standing ovation from both sets of fans!

The match over the fans left the ground in an orderly manner watched over by the Skelsthorpe WI rolling pins and wet tea towels ready in case of rowdy behaviour, while behind Constable Brook's back Bonzo quietly helped himself to the odd hot dog tossed to him by the passing crowd. (Cut-Me-Own-Throat Dribbler claimed they were genuine hot dogs against public opinion which thought Newly-Caught-Rat was more likely.) In short order the streets were empty and the pubs full of fans playing darts and consuming Pan galactic Gargle Blasters and Tearilla. Thus, their job done the WI caught the bus home and PC Brooks borrowed a wheel barrow and trundled a stuffed-unable-to-walk Bonzo home to sleep off his surfeit of rat/dogs.»
